Minutes

1. Mrs Woolley began by congratulating all of the new Young Governors on their successful applications and being voted for by their class mates – they should all be very proud.
2. The governors shared the preferences and ideas that their classes had for the Golden Mile playground markings. Following a discussion and vote the governors have decided that they think a straight line would be the best track to follow, they would like it to be in purple. They would also like the words “START” to be at the beginning of the track and purple stars to follow inside the track.
3. Mrs Aspland visited for part of the meeting asking the governors to help her choose a new mural to be painted in the First Aid room. The governors considered which picture they thought would best help a child who is feeling sad be distracted by talking about it. After looking at examples of murals they chose a picture of tree with lots of animals on it, thinking that the children in First Aid may like to talk about their favourite animals and pets.
